

---

Demining Visor

Product Images

---

Short Description

---

ROFI Demining Visor is a high-end quality and longer life span product, offering best protection according to STANAG 2920 and other international standards, with a low weight and being adjustable in size (one size fits all).

Description

---

Protection Level

ROFI Demining Visor has a protection level of V50 of 279 m/s, according to STANAG 2920.

Material Specifications

The material used to manufacture the demining Visor is 5 mm untreated polycarbonate, obtained from a known, ISO-certified supplier.

Weight

The weight of the visor, including its protective bag is of approximately 1 kg.

Visor protected area

ROFI Demining Visor's protective area is approximately 1222 cm<sup>2</sup>.

Primary features

- The straps on the headframe are adjustable, therefore it can fit any head size, and the removable washable sweatband makes the visor more comfortable to wear.
- The Visor has an easily replaceable scratch shield in 0.7 mm polycarbonate, which protects it during use, transportation, and storage.
- The design of the headframe allows maximum cooling and airflow to enhance comfort.

Additional Information

---

Ballistic Suppression	5 mm untreated polycarbonate
Protection level STANAG 2920	V50 279 m/s
Weight	1 kg
Sizes available	one size fits all
Machine Washable	Yes
Water Repellent	No
Ventilation	Yes